2023 saw The SuperGeographics' world premiere of our first major production, Helen. Presented by the historic La MaMa Experimental Theatre Club in association with En Garde Arts, Helen. ran to consistently sold-out shows, reaching over a thousand audience members at the Downstairs Theatre. The production employed 16 artists from across the US & Australia and was seen by over a thousand audience members from across New York City.

Alongside the production we organized partnerships with local community groups, hosted post-show discussions, provided complimentary tickets to schools and youth groups, and conducted a generative workshop with the talented Girl Be Heard artists.

We were also honored to be invited to the prestigious Preludes Festival to showcase our work alongside illustrious artists such as Kate Valk and The Wooster Group, Raja Feather Kelly, Annie-B Parson, and Stefanie Batten Bland.
